

August 2015

"The Julian Music Festival is excited to announce that the California Wolf Center has been named the 2015 festival's official beneficiary."

Wandering Wolf

A trail camera set up in Siskiyou county captured the image of what California Department of Fish & Wildlife biologists believe to be a gray wolf! We are hopeful that this is the second step towards California wild wolf recovery!

Completed Campaign

Our campaign for education was a success! We raised over $10,000 in 30 days. Thank you to everyone who supported our efforts to spread the truth about wolves. Education is critical to inspire youth to care about wild wolf recovery.

Film Festival

We will be leading a Q&A at the Julian Film Festival on Saturday, August 22nd following a screening of 'OR7 - The Journey' directed by Clemens Schenk. Learn more about this iconic wolf and wild wolf recovery.

Joyous Journey

The California famous wolf Journey and his mate have had another litter of puppies this year! The Southern Oregon pack continues to grow, which is great news for California!

Voice of the Volunteers

Wade Haiman is a 3rd generation San Diegan who loves nature, animals and his family. He began volunteering in an effort to make a difference while spending more time with his dad and now he can't stay away! Wade is a critical part of our team, always willing to get any job done!

The California Wolf Center is dedicated to the recovery of wolves in the wildlands they once roamed. We envision a landscape where wolves thrive in healthy ecosystems and wolves and people successfully coexist.
